

How to Fill Out a Grant Application

Carol Ott, PharmD, MPH, BCPP

Clinical Professor of Pharmacy Practice, Purdue University

Clinical Pharmacy Specialist, Psychiatry & Gender Health, Eskenazi Health

Indianapolis, IN

See more grant guidance videos at aappf.org/grants/guidance

Disclosures

- Dr. Ott does not have financial or other relationships to disclose in relation to this presentation
- This presentation will not include discussion of off-label, experimental, and /or investigational use of drugs or devices

Learning Objectives

1. Identify the sections of the online grant application for the Defining the Future Grant
2. Discuss what information should be provided in each section

Instructions

Please complete all application information and upload all requested documents, as applicable. To save your progress, scroll to the bottom and click the SAVE button.

Applicant Information

Applicant's Full Name and Credentials (if applicable):

Current Position:

Mailing Address:

Email Address:

Telephone Number:

AAPP Collegiate Chapter (if applicable):

Project Site Information

Name:

Address:

Telephone Number:

Fax Number:

Website:

Proposed Project

Title:

Co-Investigator(s), if any:

Faculty Mentor or Residency Director:

Faculty Mentor or Residency Director Email Address:

Project Topic:

Project Description (max 250 words per section)

Purpose:

Background:

Methods/Scope/Activities:

Plans for Publication:

Evaluation Strategy/Metrics:

Project Details (max 250 words per section)

Applicant's Role in the Project:

Timeline:

Provide a personal statement about your project topic and why you believe this topic is important to the care of patients with psychiatric disorders:

Itemized Budget

Last Uploaded: N/A

Upload:

No file chosen

Supporting Documents

Please compile all supporting documents into one PDF and upload.

Last Uploaded: N/A

Upload:

No file chosen

Cancel \(/grants/dtf/apply\)

Questions? Please contact Dr. Ott at:
caott@iu.edu

Thank you for attending!